

CAMDEN NEWS IN BRIEF

---

Camden Democrats who follow the standard of Sheriff Nowrey are jubilant over the re-appointment of Charles MacKilhone as a member of the Camden County Board of Taxation. It is declared to be a victory for the Nowrey followers and as such indicates that he is the recognized head of Camden Democracy.

Promising to stay away from his wife and mother-in-law George N. Cook, accused of striking his young wife and terrorizing the household, was released on suspended sentence by Recorder Stackhouse.

Charles Smith, of 203 Steven street, has been appointed a city fireman to fill the vacancy occasioned by the recent death of Edward Finley.

Out of work, Daniel Burns, aged 32 years, of 1753 South Fourth street, drank carbolic acid. At Cooper Hospital it was stated the man has good chances for recovery.

Building Inspector Day has issued building permits to the Guarantee Realty Company for the erection of five dwellings on 1901 to 1909 Mt. Ephraim avenue, and for twelve from 1137 to 1150 Sherman street.

Working about electric lights at the Farr & Baller oil cloth works, John Shimski, aged 31 years, of 1230 Sherman street, was shocked and fell. At Cooper Hospital, it was found he had been injured about the back.