MISS BOYER WEDS AN ALTOONA MAN

Large Throng of Friends at Wedding of North Camden

Young Girl

MANY GUESTS FROM OUT OF CITY

A beautiful church wedding occurred at seven o'clock last evening when Miss Mary Erma Boyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Boyer, of 708 Market street, was married to Harry B. Rose, of Altoona, Pa., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rose, of 612 North Fourth street, this city. The ceremony was performed in the Ephantophany Evangelical Lutheran Church, at Seventh and Market streets, by the pastor, Rev. Clarence K. Binder.

The wedding was the occasion of a gathering of friends from several nearby cities. Both the church and home of the bride was elaborately decorated in autumn flowers.

The bridesmaids were Miss Madge Van Hart, Miss Jan Rose, a sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Edna Money, of Norristown, Pa. The maid of honor was Miss Nettie Moreland. Clarence Rose, a brother of the groom, attended as best man, while Master Russell Conner, of Lansdale, Pa., was the ring bearer. The ushers were: Raymond

MRS. HARRY B. ROSE.

Glover, Thurston Jackson and Merrill O'Brien.

The bride was handsomely gowned in a tresaleau of white satin crepe netting trimmed with Irish point lace. She carried a spray of lily of the valley and orchids. In her hair she wore orange blossoms. The maid of honor wore a beautiful empire gown of yellow satin. She carried yellow chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids were attired alike in beautiful pink satin, trimmed with pink chiffon drapery. They carried pink and white chrysanthemums.

The bride was given away in marriage by her father. Following ritual service at the church a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents where an elaborate banquet was served. Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Rose left for Washington, D. C. They will spend their honeymoon touring the South and West. Upon their return they will reside in Altoona.

The groom was formerly connected as a draughtsman with the New York Shipbuilding Company but is now head draughtsman for the Cambrid Steel Company, at Altoona.
