

OVER IN CAMDEN

Mayor Hatch last evening appointed Samuel Paul, of the First ward, a sub-policeman.

Commencing to-day the public schools will hold half-day sessions until vacation time.

The thirty-fourth anniversary of the Camden Home for Friendless Children was celebrated yesterday.

The East Side policemen recently appointed by Mayor Hatch went on duty at midnight last night. The deposed policemen gave up their positions without a protest.

The residence of Sheriff's Clerk Harry H. Marter, at 853 State street, was robbed of jewelry, clothing and silverware during the absence of the family on Decoration Day.

John Wisaki and his father-in-law, Charles Flaski, of 1165 Jane street, Camden, were held in $500 bail each yesterday by Justice Colding, charged with assault and battery on Contractor William Rose.

The funeral of Mrs. Catharine Eck, whose corpse was badly charred by fire at the home of her son-in-law, J. M. Dougherty, No. 411 North Third street, on Monday, was held yesterday from the Church of the Immaculate Conception.

Captain Washington Irving, commander of the Battalion of the East, Naval Reserve, last evening conducted an official inspection and muster of the Battalion of the West at the Masonic Temple. There were 110 men present, but many were without uniforms.

Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday by the York Light, Heat and Power Company, capitalized at $350,000, and the National Automatic Stamp Affixer Company, with a capital stock of $250,000. Each corporation is said to have $1000 of its stock paid in.

The name of the Abraham Lincoln public school in South Camden has been changed to the Claudius W. Bradshaw school, in honor of the lately deceased former Mayor of Camden. The change was made because there is an Abraham Lincoln school in the East Side district, which is older than the Camden school of that name.
