

OVER IN CAMDEN.

* Lead pipe thieves despoiled the empty house 415 Line street, owned by Mrs. Keegan, of Philadelphia.

* David Smock, a Philadelphia peddler, failed to take out a five-dollar city license in Camden, and Justice Paul fined him $25.

* Justice Chester issued a warrant for the arrest of John Henry Robinson, who chased his wife out of doors with a club and a knife.

* The County Board of License Commissioners last night granted a retail license to John J. Archer, of Second and Spruce streets.

* William Brach, 16 years old, of 112 Mount Vernon street, was overcome by the heat yesterday and was taken to the Cooper Hospital.

* James H. Morton, the colored murderer who is to be hanged next Friday, is visited daily by his 16-year-old daughter and his spiritual adviser.

* James Hannegan, the Wilmington excursionist who had an arm crushed by the cars at Atlantic City, had the injured member amputated yesterday at the Cooper Hospital.

* James Kane, the young man charged with being the cause of the ruin and death of 16-year old Clara Fish, was given a final hearing before Justice Barker yesterday and was committed for trial without bail.

* A. R. Dease, the Camden painter who was the lowest bidder for painting the City Hall corridor, and who threatened to get an injunction against the award of the contract to the highest bidder, is likely to get the job. He was notified yesterday that the awarding of the contract had been withheld until the next meeting of the committee.
