

WEDDING DAY FOR MANY JUNE BRIDES

Special to The Inquirer.

WOODBURY, N. J., June 23—Last evening in Christ Church Miss Sarah Driver Lippincott and Walter Raymond Bean were married by Rev. Malcolm Taylor, rector. At 8:30 o'clock the bridal party entered the church, the bride leaning on the arm of her father, Mark B. Lippincott. The maid of honor was Miss Alice, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids were Misses Anna and Lillian Lippincott, also sisters, and Miss Margaret Rogers and Ivone Kirkpatrick. The ushers were Ernest Pierce, John A. Hovey, Jerre Rodgers Daniell and Edgar Trask. The bride carried blossoms from an orange tree planted twenty-five years ago, on the date of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Merritt, whose anniversary was recently observed.

At the home of the bride's mother Miss Katherine C. Hendrickson and Albert Heale were married last night by Rev. Mr. Hare, of Camden.

This evening at the residence of the bride's parents Miss Sadie M. Smallwood and Ralph B. Richmond were joined in wedlock.

Blore—Johnson

There was a pretty home wedding last night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson W. Johnson, 119 Linden street, Camden, when their daughter, Miss M. Ella Johnson, became the bride of J. Paul Blore, also of Camden. Rev. Dr. A. W. Spooner, of Cape May, officiated. The bride was given away by her father. Miss Maud E. Cross, of Boston, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Misses Sarah C. Blore, M. Alice Johnson, Christine B. Baird and M. Margaret Williams. Frank E. Bierfreund was best man.

Craig—Fisher

Miss Elsie M. Fisher and William B. Craig, both of East Camden, were united in marriage last night at the home of the bride, 3024 Federal street, by Rev. George T. Harris, of the Asbury M. E. Church. Miss Jennie Craig was bridesmaid and Albert Reed best man.

Miller—Inskip

E. F. Miller and Miss Lizzie Inskip were married in Wiley M. E. Church, Camden. Miss Lizzie Miller was bridesmaid and George Stein best man.

Goodwin—Stiles

Special to The Inquirer.

MILLVILLE, N. J., June 23.—Miss Bertha Mae Stiles was married to Wilbert H. Goodwin last night, by Rev. Holmes F. Gravatt, pastor of the First M. E. Church. Miss Mary Wells was bridesmaid and Edward Hampton best man. The young couple left on the "bridal train" at 10 o'clock for the St. Louis Exposition.

Duncan—Sheats

Special to The Inquirer.

WESTVILLE, N. J., June 23.—Miss Patience Sheats, a prominent church worker of South Westville, was married last night to Frank H. Duncan, of this place, by Rev. George W. Powell, of Gloucester City. The bridesmaid was Rothanna Washburn and the best man Chilson I. Washburn.