

DOINGS IN CAMDEN

 Mayor Ellis yesterday appointed Frederick Lechleider, of the Twelfth ward, a sub-policeman.

 Nathan Bellitt, an orphan, aged 13 years, died at Cooper Hospital, yesterday, from typhoid fever. He was sent to the institution from Bridgeport.

 John Derry, aged 80 years, is seriously ill at the homestead Fillmore street and Ferry avenue. He is a veteran of the Civil war. For years he was the only shoemaker in Centreville.

 Mrs. Ann M. Ireland, aged 91 years, of 432 Haddon avenue, died yesterday from a complication of diseases. She was a member of First M. E. Church for many years.

 Frederick Pippito, of 419 Emerald street, was operated on at the West Jersey Homeopathic Hospital yesterday for blood poison. His condition is serious.

 Charles H. Fitzsimmons, aged 3 years, grandson of Policeman Fitzsimmons, was run over by a heavily-laden team at Third and Sycamore streets yesterday. The boy was picked up for dead, but Dr. R. I. Haines said no bones were broken and the child was suffering only from shock.

 For the fourth time in a year thieves entered the file factory of the D. H. Murphy Company, on North Front street, and stole $5 in small change, a suit of clothing, and a pair of shoes.
