

CAPTURE

al Von Emmich
ive Commit-
icldc.

SCOOP TED PRESS

ON WEIGAND.
(correspondent.)
the United Press.)
eat Britain.)

OF GENERAL
c. 5.—(Delayed)—
in:—The story of
se has just been
eral von Emmich,
ider whose forces
made General Le-
ender, a prisoner.
ime General von
of the taking of

within thirty-six
al assault of the
The losses for-
ared the Germans
re of the Belgian
xceeded the hit-
he army high at-
oral von Emmich
is statement. He y what the Ger-
aded:
reported to have
That, of course,
aded to show how
are some of the

ch has been re-
e occasions than neral. He is ap-
of health and
good for many
e, which was be-
nable before the
an to hammer at incident of the Emmich. When
riters and asked
ory of the taking
kly stated, first,
acking force was
as reported and

ual attack upon
Two forts were
e took possession
on the morning
We remained in
ime and marched
he bombardment

arians say his chances for recovery are slight.
Govolsky occupies a room at the Second street address. This morning he got up late and started to prepare his own breakfast. The fire did not come up quickly enough for him, so he poured oil into the stove. Immediately there was a flaring flame and Govolsky's clothing became ignited. He ran to the street screaming with pain.

Druggists refund money if PAZO OINTMENT fails to cure Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles. First application gives relief. 50c.

Only One "BROMO QUININE"
Whenever you feel a cold coming on, think of the full name, LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE. Look for signature of E. W. Grove on box. 25c.

SOUTH CAMDEN SIFTINGS

The Smart Set Club had the time of their lives at McConaghy's, Fifth and Walnut streets, last night when they enjoyed a turkey supper. Those who took part were F. Mairs, D. Woedito, J. Mount, J. Benny, J. MacValn, T. Elliott and P. Blair.

The Trinity M. E. Orchestra furnished the music at the anniversary exercises of Trinity Lodge, I. O. M., which were held in the parish building of the Church of Our Saviour, Broadway and Viola street.

The Trinity M. E. Orchestra is rehearsing a Christmas story in song entitled "In Quest of the King."

Funeral services for Lewis Haven- that were held last evening at his residence, 442 Line street. Interment was made at Burlington, N. J. Last night Camp No. 117, P. O. S. of A., and Wilton Lodge, No. 6, I. O. M., held services at the house.

Friends of Mrs. Franklin Johnson, of 606 South-Fifth street, will be elated to learn that the estimable woman is fast recovering from the effects of her illness.

Miss Marion Knox, a popular young lady, of 611 South Third street, is reported to be ill at her home. Miss Knox, who is suffering with la-grippe, has the best wishes of a large circle of young friends for a speedy recovery.

The young people of the Union M. E. Church, Fifth and Mt. Vernon streets, are busily rehearsing for their Christmas cantata, entitled "Santa's Christmas Bargain," to be presented in the church on Wednesday evening, December 30. From the excellent progress the young folks are making the affair should be a brilliant success.

School chums and playmates of little Miss Irene Williams, of 451 Royden street, will be more than delighted to learn that the popular little miss is fast recovering from the effects of injuries she sustained several days ago when struck by a speeding auto on Broadway. The deep lacerations on Miss Irene's head are rapidly healing and it is quite probable that she will soon be romping about again.

Scores of down-town basket ball resident of Line street, is visiting her aunt, a resident of Riverside.

Having served a regular enlistment as a sailor in the U. S. Navy, Leon Dickinson has arrived at his South Camden home. "Dick," as he was familiarly known in sporting circles, was a crack base ball and basket ball player, and during his time on "dry land" participated in several games of both sports. Leon recently returned from Mexico, where he said the heat was almost unbearable. He is delighted to be home with his relatives and friends and is undecided whether or not to re-enlist.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Union Republican Club was held last evening at 450 Kaighn avenue. Plans were discussed for the leasing of a club house and the furnishing of the same. Committees were appointed to take charge of the work and it is expected that the club will be in their new headquarters within a week.

Cards are out announcing the engagement of Miss Agnes Young, of Phoenixville, and Mr. Edgar Blaine Trites, of South Camden. Miss Young is very popular among the younger set, while Mr. Trites has a host of friends in fraternal circles. The wedding will take place in Phoenixville in the near future.

Charles F. Pope, of the U. S. Regulars, Twenty-fourth Infantry, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Clinton, of 74 Perry avenue. Mr. Pope has served his country for eighteen years, and will return after the holidays.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Reinhart, 708 Walnut street, and left a bouncing baby girl. Mother and baby are doing well.

At a meeting of many prominent colored Republican citizens of the Sixth ward last night at the residence of Horace Acloo, 605 Kaighn avenue, the Sixth Ward Republican Brotherhood Association was organized.

The following officers were elected: President, Horace Acloo; vice president, Charles Beal; secretary, Clarence Nixon; assistant secretary, Charles Moore; treasurer, Alfred Ringle; chaplain, Thomas Lewis. Addresses were made by the newly hammer at incident of the Emmich. When quarters and asked tory of the taking ckly stated, first, tacking force was as reported and actual attack upon Two forts were wa took possession ck on the morning We remained in time and marched The bombardment Liege which still the heavy artil- id to complete the tion." ch said he did not n had participated ge during the first r of his staff told r day. mander is a war- d to the suffering. e havoc that have him but how that ar it must be con- nost vigor, he be- s incident to war n's heart strings," from making the s possible, there is mentality."

lege began August neral Lemán was he Germans while ns of one of the mans had reduced is probably the neral von Emmich terview with von-

ts first admitted ad entered Liege

SETTLEMENT.
ven, that the final riber, executor of Brandt, deceased, stated by the Sur- to the Orphans' ty, on Friday, the ember, next.
HAMBLETON,
Executor.
D. 1914.
ctor, (P.-T.)

gress the young folks are making the affair should be a brilliant success.

School chums and playmates of little Miss Irene Williams, of 451 Royden street, will be more than delighted to learn that the popular little miss is fast recovering from the effects of injuries she sustained several days ago when struck by a speeding auto on Broadway. The deep lacerations on Miss Irene's head are rapidly healing and it is quite probable that she will soon be romping about again.

Scores of down-town basket ball bugs will accompany the local Eastern League team to Cooper Battalion Hall, Philadelphia, this evening, and root for Adams and his colleagues to atone for their recent defeat by wallowing Greystock.

The Mercy and Help Department of the Broadway M. E. Church will again do its share to care for the poor and needy on Christmas Day. Nearly two hundred baskets, containing poultry and all sorts of vegetables, are distributed among the poor absolutely free of charge. Too much credit cannot be given to the women who annually spend several days in preparing these baskets that the unfortunate ones would not go hungry on Merry Christmas Day.

The funeral of John Thompson, who died on Wednesday, was held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the home of his son-in-law, Howard Bell, 1100 Baring street. Scores of floral designs were in evidence, a mute tribute to the deceased man. Mr. Thompson, who was seventy-nine years of age, had been a resident of the Sixth ward for more than thirty years. He formerly conducted a flourishing grocery business at Baring and Chestnut streets. Failing health was responsible for his retirement.

From his late home, 442 Line street, at 10 o'clock this morning the funeral of Lewis Heventhal, who passed away on Tuesday, was held. Mr. Heventhal, who was in his 47th year, was well known in the southern section of the city. He was a member of Washington Camp, No. 117, P. O. S. of A., and Wilton Lodge, No. 6, I. O. M. The interment was made at Berlin.

Miss Rose Kennedy, a well known and Mrs. Joseph Reinhart, 700 Walnut street, and left a bouncing baby girl. Mother and baby are doing well.

At a meeting of many prominent colored Republican citizens of the Sixth ward last night at the residence of Horace Acloo, 605 Kaighn avenue, the Sixth Ward Republican Brotherhood Association was organized.

The following officers were elected: President, Horace Acloo; vice president, Charles Beal; secretary, Clarence Nixon; assistant secretary, Charles Moore; treasurer, Alfred Ringle; chaplain, Thomas Lewis.

Addresses were made by the newly elected officers and several others. The association was formed for the sole purpose of getting a strong club together.

Death this morning claimed the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor, of 137 Stanley street. Coroner Schroeder issued a certificate of death by natural causes. The baby was but a few hours old.

Struck by falling timbers when a shed he was demolishing collapsed at the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad terminal this morning, John P. Brand, aged 35 years, of 1224 Morton street, sustained painful lacerations of the legs and arms. He was taken to the new Homeopathic Hospital. His condition is not serious.

One of the most enjoyable social events held by the Camden Lodge of Friendly Stags took place last evening at the headquarters, 527 South Fifth street. The success of the affair is due to the zealous efforts of Mrs. Banks and daughter, and Mrs. Molleneaux and Mrs. Burkhart.

Seated about the festive board were 35 participants. Remarks were made by John H. Riddle, J. J. Campbell, W. H. Hall, H. Burkhard and Messrs. Borschner and Banks. Plans were made last night for the organizing of a ladies' auxiliary. The members expect to enroll a membership of 200 ladies by the first of the year.

DR. HUBERT MACGEORGE, DENTIST, 552 FEDERAL ST., CAMDEN.

Those who have followed the pictures of The Perils of Pauline at the People's Theatre the same will now be shown at the Ferry Avenue Palace. —(Adv.)