

CAMDEN CITY NOTES.

David Hilleman, a brakeman on the New Jersey Southern Railroad, was probably fatally injured late on Thursday night by falling between two cars near Atsion. He is at the Cooper Hospital.

Harry Jackson, George King, William Brown, J. Henry Green, Frederick Parker, Albert Russel and John Valentine, all colored, were each fined $8.67 yesterday by the Mayor. They were caught by policemen Dall and Weaver gambling in a house on Newton avenue.

An unknown man has been securing money from persons in South Camden by going to the residences of men while they were at work and telling their wives that their husbands sent them for it. Mrs. Martin Barney, of 1210 Locust street was cheated out of $2.50 in this way.

Mayhew Press, the man who was captured by Policeman Hart on Thursday night dressed in woman's attire, was discharged by Mayor Pratt yesterday. He told the Mayor that he lived in Magnolia. In the early part of the week his wife left him, taking with her his $70 gold watch, and he disguised himself so as to capture her.
