

NEW JERSEY FIREMEN

And Various Matters of Local Interest from Camden.

The eighth annual meeting of the New Jersey Firemen's Association will be held at Atlantic City on the 30th inst.

The corner-stone of a Baptist mission chapel will be laid at Sewell City, Barnabro station, on Monday.

Great preparations are being made by the Germans to attend the Egg Harbor Fair on Sunday.

The fall exhibition of the Moorestown Agricultural Society begins to day and closes to morrow.

A race between the tuckups J. W. Ledyard and the Denton, from South street wharf to Chester buoy and return to Thompson's Point, Gloucester City, for a purse of $100, took place yesterday. The start was made at 10 30 A. M. and finished at 5 40 P. M., the Ledyard winning by 20 seconds.

The third bicycle cup race of the Camden wheelmen will take place at the Gentlemen's Driving Park, Merchantville, to-morrow.

Samuel Welsh, an employee of the Camden and Atlantic Railroad Company, has been admitted to bail in the sum of $100 for trial on the charge of threatening to shoot one William Hainer.

William O. Sloan, of Waterford, Camden county, publicly announced his withdrawal as a candidate for County Clerk on the Republican ticket. He failed to assign a reason. This leaves the field clear for Hon. Edward Burrough, a prominent Camden county farmer.

Mrs. Mary Sharpe, who was arrested on Wednesday at her residence, on Fearn street, where the counterfeiters' tools and moulds were captured, was released from custody yesterday to appear for a hearing before United States Commissioner Morgan on next Wednesday.