

OVER IN CAMDEN

A CHINESE SHAWL VALUED AT $400, was received by Mr. and Mrs. George S. Dilmore, of Fourth street and Kaighn avenue, as a Christmas present from Wah Gee and his wife, who were married last August at the home of the Dilmores.

SILAS H. QUINT, AGED 77 YEARS, OF 442 Line street, a manufacturer of seals and stencils in Philadelphia, where he was in business, on Fourth street, for nearly a half century, died on Sunday of Bright's disease.

POLICEMAN SAMUEL COX HAS TENDERED his resignation to take effect January 1. He will probably be succeeded by Jas. Ware, Jr., an ex-member of the Board of Education.

JUSTICE SCHMITZ HELD JAMES SHARP in bail yesterday charged with assault and battery on Annie Blanche Williams.

THE SECOND ANNUAL BALL OF THE George S. Dilmore New Year Association was held last night at Turner Hall. The grand march was led by William and Miss Katie Dilmore. The club expects to turn out about 450 shooters on New Year's Day.

A CHRISTMAS TREE AT THE RESIDENCE of Fireman Samuel Lodge, at 1139 South Third street, caught fire Sunday night. The front and back parlors were burned out, causing a loss of over $200.

MRS. WILLIAM MOST, OF 518 PENN street, who was stricken with apoplexy on Christmas, while descending the stairs at her home, is dead.

EX-ASSEMBLYMAN GEORGE W. HENRY, M. D., who was given two weeks by Vice-Chancellor Grey to pay his wife back alimony and counsel fees, is said to have effected a settlement with his wife's counsel by the payment of $100 and the agreement to pay $3 per week alimony pending determination of his suit for divorce.

CHRISTMAS EXERCISES WERE CELEBRATED last evening by the First Baptist, St. Stephen's and Kaighn Avenue M. E. Church. The Boys' Parlor and Industrial School also had a Christmas entertainment in the W. C. T. U. Hall.