

FISH AND GAME MEN WILL BANQUET HERE

The four members of the State Board of Fish and Game Commissioners, the chief protector and the twenty-four wardens who are distributed among the counties of the state will hold their second annual dinner in the Dutch room at Hildebrecht's cafe tomorrow afternoon. Proprietor J. Fred. Margerum has prepared a special menu for the occasion, and it may be taken for granted that nothing will be served that will be in violation of the state's fish and game regulations.

The members of the board are: President, Benjamin P. Morris of Long Branch, Richard T. Miller of Camden, David P. McClellan of Morristown, Percy H. Johnson of Bloomfield. The chief protector is James M. Stratton of North Long Branch.

The wardens are: John Schuster, Egg Harbor City; Howard Mathes, New Gretna; Ward Varian, Demarest; William Guthridge, Camden; C. Wilbur, Camden; George Phifer, Ormonde; F. S. Connor, Bridgeton; Augustus Hilton, Anglesea; F. J. Hall, Bloomfield; J. H. Avis, Westville; H. E. Dane, Hoboken; H. E. Park, White House; E. J. Jones, Madison; Harry L. Cook, Trenton; Charles Stevenwald, Metuchen; A. J. Rider, Tuckerton; L. E. Foulks, New Egypt; A. W. Hughes, Paterson; J. B. Hendershott, Newton; E. R. Davis, Salem; T. J. Torton, Penns Grove; G. M. Miller, Finderdine; Charles M. Hawkins, Elizabeth; Edward Hill, Rocksbury.
